

New Planned Burn Advice Message from Bushfires NT

Location: Arnhem Highway between the Adelaide River Bridge and the Corroboree Billabong Turnoff, Marrakai.

Status: Planned Burn - Planned burns are carried out as part of a program to reduce bushfire risk to communities.

Alert Level: Planned Burn Advice - A planned burn will be underway from 15:15 hours (3.15pm) today. Firefighters are managing the burn but flames and smoke may be visible.

Risks Faced by People in the Area: Smoke from this fire may affect visibility, Active fire may occur close to the roadside, Firefighting crews may be working close to the roadside.

Advice to the Public: For the safety of firefighting crews and other vehicles, drivers in the area are urged to slow down, turn on headlights and drive safely for the conditions. For further information regarding bushfires, visit Secure NT. <https://securent.nt.gov.au/>

It is expected this situation may continue until: 2/08/2018 19:00 hours (7.00pm)

Responsible Agency: Bushfires NT, Northern Territory Department of Environment and Natural Resources

To view the Fire Incident Map go to:

<http://www.pfes.nt.gov.au/incidentmap/>

For information about other incidents go to:

<https://securent.nt.gov.au/prepare-for-an-emergency/bushfires>