

New Planned Burn Advice Message from Bushfires NT

Location: Stuart Hwy south of Alice Springs between the Rail Overpass and Roger Vale Drive.

Status: Planned Burn Underway - Planned burns are carried out as part of a program to reduce bushfire risk to communities

Alert Level: Planned Burn Advice - A planned burn will be underway from 17:00 hours today. Firefighters are managing the burn but flames and smoke may be visible.

Risks Faced by People in the Area: Smoke from this planned burn may affect visibility, Active fire may occur close to the roadside, Firefighting crews may be working close to the roadside.

Advice to the Public: For the safety of firefighting crews and other vehicles, drivers in the area are urged to slow down, turn on headlights and drive safely for the conditions. For further information regarding bushfires, visit Secure NT. <https://securant.nt.gov.au/>

It is expected this situation may continue until: 25/07/2018 21:00 hours

Information Authorised By: Senior Fire Control Officer

Responsible Agency: Bushfires NT, Northern Territory Department of Environment and Natural Resources

Information Current as at: 16:20 hours